

Support Worker Roles Ōtepoti (Dunedin)

This is an exciting time, Stepping Stone Trust is expanding to Ōtepoti to provide services for people needing support with intellectual differences (ID) and mental health issues. We are looking for Support Workers to join our new Southern Division.

About us | Mō mātou

We are a faith-based organisation, and our mission is to journey with people to find a place of standing, hope, recovery, and wellness. We champion our values of Faith, Grace, Hope, Love, and Integrity in our work by bringing the best of ourselves to every situation and put the wellbeing of all the people we care for, first.

We offer | Tā mātou mahi

While experience working in the ID and mental health sector is preferred SST provides training and mentoring to gain knowledge supported by our experienced staff members.

- A friendly work environment where you and together with support staff can make a difference in people's lives.
- Paid birthday leave (after six months employment).
- full-time/part-time/casual work available
- AM/PM shifts/ night awake shifts (weekend work included).

About the Role | Mō Te Tūnga

You will be working with our tāngata whaikaha daily and help them managing daily living. This includes assessing their needs and capabilities and develop support plans to promote their independence. You will provide support for all activities of daily living including managing and administering medication, daily personal care, housework, and cooking.

About you | Mōu

We are seeking a compassionate new team member, who can engage and develop good relationships with tāngata whaikaha and their families. As the type of work can be challenging, we like you to be able to stay calm in unforeseen situations, think on the spot and outside the box.

- A National Certificate in Health & Wellbeing (level 4) or equivalent; is an advantage.
- Full relevant class, unendorsed motor vehicle license.
