

Night Awake Support Worker

Youth Residential

The Youth Residential service provides a stable environment to support young people experiencing mental distress. This service offers trauma-informed care to enable young people to manage their mental health and maintain engagement with the community.

About you

Our team is looking for a Support Worker with experience working with vulnerable people in a residential or community context. You are a Night Owl and are looking for work that might fit in with your life rhythms.

Key Responsibilities:

- Many aspects of the Residential Service including house tidying, grocery orders, client file auditing, office documentation – to help keep you awake.
- Support day staff to provide a positive living environment for tāngata whaikaha in their recovery journey and crisis care plan.

We would like you to have:

- Confidence in working in a mental health environment.
- Good verbal and written communication skills.
- Competent skills in using Microsoft Office Tools, email, and cloud-based systems.
- Professionally developed intuition around tāngata whaikaha and their needs and life context.
- L4 certificate with relevant mental health/support service experience is an advantage.

We can offer:

- Supportive environment to learn and grow in your expertise.
- Make a difference in people's lives.
- Permanent role
- Paid birthday leave (after six months employment).
